Donald,

I got a letter from Jay and Lorna Buckalew last week.

They knew Mac's name but they didn't know him.

They knew who Ibach was because he delivered their oil or propane, but they didn't know him beyond that.

They knew of Laura because Lorna worked at Sintliff's hardware store with Mike Losser, who was the dad of Laura's friend Debbie and a friend of Jays.

She said that she heard that Laura didn't want Jack to have anything to do with their kids.

When Sintliff's would call KPD, Officer John Palmer would come. She said that she never had any kind of negative interaction with him.

Lorna said:

"However Barry Paris is another subject! He threatened Jay in Anchorage when he testified at Mac's trial."

COPS
Criminals, ~~and~~ and law abiding citizens have all claimed that Paris was a dirty cop.

Why did Paris threaten Jay? Was it because Jay and Lorna knew that you and Laura knew each other long before the day she disappeared, which contradicts KPD's story that you two didn't know each other prior to the day she disappeared?

Sincerely,
Cliff Anderson
